

“Kadir Has University 2. NGO Days”
3-4 March 2010
Kadir Has University
Cibali / İstanbul

Second Days of the Non-Governmental Organization was organized by Kadir Has University between 3-4 March 2010 by Has Corporate Social Responsibility Academy which was built with the help of Kadir Has University and Turkey Corporate Social Responsibility Association.

32 Non-Governmental Organization showed their Social responsibility projects to students, members of the press, business world by opening stands in Second Days of the NGO. Separately, Second Days of the Non-Governmental Organization conducted interactive information sharing pool with film screenings, workshops and seminars which were provided by NGO in Second Days of the NGO.

Opening speeches of Second Days of the Non-Governmental Organization which are organized to be shared the Non-Governmental Organization' activities about the social responsibility projects on Education, Culture, Environment, Equal Opportunity and Diversity, Youth and Social Rights, Human Rights and Environment, and about campaigns, events was performed by Kadir Has University Prof. Dr. Mustafa Aydın, Turkey Corporate Social Responsibility Association Chairman Serdar Dinler and KHU Social Responsibility Coordinator Burcin Karagemicioğlu.

After the opening speeches finished, TESEV Good Governance Program Director Fikret Toksoz, Chairman of Youth Association for Habitat Sezai Hazır, UNDP Program Manager Hansın Doğan discussed the role of Non-Governmental Organization in development with participants in an interactive manner in the “Impact on Development of Non-Governmental Organization in Turkey” named panel which was directed by Turkey Corporate Social Responsibility Association Chairman Serdar Dinler. This panel was about relationship between Non-Governmental Organization.

Documentary films named “Sustainable Life Films” which included environmental problems and the solutions to environmental problems in Turkey and all around the world with the contribution of wheat association were showed in Kadir Has University movie theaters. The documentaries which are especially selected about energy and food were presented to participants' appreciation for harmony with nature is a world model.

Cisco Networking Academy Program Manager Deniz Sungurlu performed a workshop named “e-Capacity and Social Responsibility Week” about contribution to growth and employment of information technology with contributions of Youth Association for Habitat in Second Days of the Non-Governmental Organization. Deniz Sungurlu attended to this organization with participation of Turkey to e-Capacity Week activities which are materialized between 1-5 march 2010 in europe.

World Environment Awareness and Education Association President Nesrin Akkoç and artist/literati Fikret Hakan from World Environment Awareness and Education Association shared their ideas about social responsibility and cultural perceptions with participants in the seminar named “Art and Human”

The first day of Second Days of the Non-Governmental Organization was ended with short films and documentaries named as “45 Minutes in Unclaimed İstanbul-HAYTAP/45 Minutes”, “TEGV Short Film- TEGV/2 Minutes”, “City of Ghosts – HAYTAP/25 Minutes” were organized with contribution of Non-Governmental Organization.

Second day of Second Days of the Non-Governmental Organization which was in 4 March 2010 started with the seminar named “Socio-Economic Development of Modern Science - Human Relations and Global Warming” which was performed by World Environment Awareness and Education Association President Nesrin Akkoç, and artist/Former Ministry Advisor of Environment Ministry.

After seminar finished, one of the Turkey’s best photographers named Bennu Gerede who had attended to TOÇEV’s photograph project named as “My face is hope” performed a slide show and an interview about the photograph project with TOÇEV representatives.

AIESEC Istanbul Marketing Director Merve Tunalı and her team buddies performed a seminar named as “Overseas Internship Program and Leadership” about internship programs abroad and leadership. The purpose of this seminar was to provide increasing about young people’s abroad experiences and to provide a dialogue between all of the young people.

After seminars ended, short films of participant Non-Governmental Organization which are named as UNESCO “The world that includes everyone” Seed Autism Foundation , “Seed Autism Foundation Film Screening of Education Kit” Seed Autism Foundation, “Koruncuk” Turkey Children in Need of Protection Foundation, “Noviembre” Hangar Art Association /104 minutes and “Citizen Mustafa”, “Saving Kocaoğlan”, “Last Beach” Mountain culture association were showed. After these short films finished, Second Days of the Non-Governmental Organization ended.